

The enchanting path of green speckled with vibrant flowers leads you back to the patio area, where you step into a Balinese-inspired seating area. With earthen and jewel-toned lanterns hanging from the rafters to the bohemian table coverings, you forget where you are. Adjacent to the house in an outdoor sink handy for gardening and repotting plants. Near the patio sits a soothing fountain adorned with the perfect size plants and decorative pieces from the Orient.

A quaint storage shed further back is as functional as it is decorative with its blue color-washed door and winding creeper plant draped over a metal trellis.
